

Local Mission Organizations

Aid Sudan

<http://www.aidsudan.org/>

Contact Natalie West, 713.414.5490, Natalie@aimsudan.org

Aid Sudan is an inter-denominational, non-profit organization serving the southern Sudanese in several targeted locations in Sudan and through U.S. offices in Dallas and Houston. For much of the last half century, the country of Sudan has been ravaged by civil war. The Houston office provides support to local churches and organizes volunteers to help and encourage southern Sudanese living in the area. Whether in the U.S. or in Sudan, Aid Sudan's vision is to aid in growing strong southern Sudanese communities committed to serving Jesus Christ.

C.H.A.R.M.

<http://www.charmprisonministry.org/>

Contact Dave Trickett, dtrick3@comcast.net

Christ Hope and Reconciliation Ministry (C.H.A.R.M.) exists to minister to needs of those incarcerated, correctional personnel and their respective families. Sharing the hope of Jesus Christ in order for them to be reconciled to God; thereby transforming relationships with their families, the local church and their communities. Volunteers are needed to help with evangelism, discipleship, counseling, and after care.

Generation One

<http://www.generationone.net/>

Contact Michelle Moulton, 256.225.9632, mentor@generationone.net

Generation One is committed to the spiritual growth and physical rebuilding of the impoverished areas of the Third Ward of Houston, Texas. We direct a tremendous amount of time, love, and education towards the youth in the community, as well as work hard to improve the overall quality of life for all community residents. Volunteers are needed to help clear and clean lots, paint homes, help with demolition and restoration, and help with annual events.

Houston Food Bank

<http://houstonfoodbank.org/volunteer/>

Contact Bethany Way, 713.547.8657, bway@houstonfoodbank.org

The Houston Food Bank is the nation's largest size Feeding America food bank and source of food for hunger relief charities in 18 southeast Texas counties. Volunteers are needed to help sort food, prepare meals at Keegan Kitchen, and various other projects.

Mars Hill

<http://www.mars-hill.org/>

Contact online at <http://www.mars-hill.org/contact.aspx>, 281.403.1463.

Mars Hill Productions is a non-profit, non-denominational media ministry that has produced award-winning films and videos that have been used around the world to introduce thousands of people to Jesus Christ, and to motivate thousands more to share their faith in Christ with others. Mars Hill needs men and women volunteers whom God has called and prepared to join them in using media to reach the world for Christ.

North Central Baptist Church

<http://www.ncbaptistchurch.org/>

Contact Pastor Peter Slagle, 713.692.6316

There are opportunities to serve at this local church with the food pantry, Wednesday night youth activities and work projects.

Redeemed Ministries

<http://www.redeemedministries.com/>

Contact online at <http://www.redeemedministries.com/contact.html>, 832.447.4130

Redeemed Ministries serves the following mission: to bring Christ's loving redemption and amazing liberation to those trapped and exploited within the commercial sex industry and/or by human trafficking for sexual exploitation or forced labor. The core strategies of Redeemed Ministries are educating people, seeking victims, building relationships, identifying resources, and redeeming hearts.

Star of Hope

<http://www.sohmission.org/NetCommunity//>

Contact online at <http://www.sohmission.org/netcommunity/page.aspx?pid=249>, 713-748-0700

Star of Hope is a Christ-centered community dedicated to meeting the needs of homeless men, women and their children. Positive life changes are encouraged through structured programs which focus on spiritual growth, education, employment, life management and recovery from substance abuse.

Target Hunger in the Fifth Ward

<http://targethunger.org/>

Contact Denece Dene, 713.398.5395

Target Hunger's mission is to work to alleviate hunger and its root causes in the heart of Houston's inner city, and their vision is to create a community where nobody goes hungry, and individuals are able to provide food for themselves and their families. Volunteers are needed for the food pantry, the community gardens, youth development, home delivery, adopt a senior and other special events.

The Faith Center

<http://houstonfirst.org/faithcenter>

Contact Matthew Creath, 713.554.8804, Matthew.Creath@HoustonFirst.org

Volunteers are needed to help with the food pantry, clothes closet, English as a Second Language classes, computer training classes, Bible study teachers and assistants, Kids' Club, Summer Lunch Program, Saturday Service Day, Faith Center Computer Ministry, Christmas Store, bilingual counseling, van drivers, multi-cultural church services, and Concrete Christians.

Urban Outreach Apartment Ministry

<http://urbanoutreachinc.org/>

Contact David Torres, 713.869.4281, David.Torres@urbanoutreachinc.org

Urban Outreach fulfills their mission through a range of programming targeting at-risk children, the chronically unemployed or underemployed, and low-income apartment residents. Their holistic approach to the family touches all of its members by providing activities and services through programs that meet their spiritual, physical, social, and educational needs. Their vision is to see the Houston community transformed through the lifestyle changes of individual residents resulting in stronger, healthier families.

YWAM Street Church

<http://www.ywamhouston.org/>

Contact Martin Dale, 281.682.4379, Martin@ywamhouston.org

YWAM missionaries partner with Joe Williams ministries to host Street Church in Montrose. There is a time of worship, a full Gospel presentation through a sermon message, and a time to love on those attending. Volunteers help serve a meal, set up and tear down, love on the homeless and others attending, or participate in the service by providing worship or dramas.